ASSOCIATIONS

Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA); PRSSA is the student branch of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA). Students within PRSSA must uphold all PRSA standards of ethics and maintain a GPA above a 3.0. Within PRSSA students connect and network with PR professionals and build out their portfolio for future career efforts. Some training in PRSSA includes social media management, press release development, and pitching to journalists.

Her Campus; Her Campus is an online, student magazine/blog that centers around personal development and young adult life. Under the association I wrote and published several blogs that discussed sexuality, food, lifestyle, and mental health as a woman in college.

Boiler Gold Rush (BGR); BGR is Purdue University's student run freshman orientation. Training for BGR lasts five months (Apr-Aug) and teaches sophomores-seniors about leadership, growth, and dealing with peer pressure in college. Boiler Gold Rush has two separate programs that introduces (1) international and (2) domestic students to college life in West Lafayette, IN. Students interview to either be a Team Leader (TL) or Supervisor (Super). Under BGR I was a Team Leader and led a group of 15 international and domestic students to teach them about navigating Purdue.
