Strategy

Strengthen Thought Leadership

- Feature department leaders and managers sharing their "lessons learned" from 2025
- Use carousel posts and short videos to break down insights in a digestible, executive-friendly format

Humanize the brand

- Highlight employee voices and behind-the-scenes moments (two things both employees and clients wanted to see more of from the brand survey)
- Focus on turning feedback from clients into fuel
- Day in the life series, following employees around for a behind the scenes of what they do

Support ATL Engagement Goals

- Align content with ATL pain points: transformation fatigue, strategic misalignment, innovation pressure
- Use storytelling to show how Impact is solving these challenges

 Overview

Core theme: Transformation through Transparency

We're closing out 2025 by spotlighting the real lessons behind business growth. "Powered by Impact" will showcase how departments across the company have evolved, highlighting challenges they've faced, the lessons they've learned, and how those experiences are fueling our next chapter.

It's not so much about failure, but more so resilience, reflection, and real progress.

 Target Audience

- VPs, CXOs, and Business owners (esp. ATL personas)
- Department leaders and decision-makers with Impact
- Clients and partners interested in transformation stories

 Key Messages

Powered by Impact means powered by people

	 High priority
1	Increase LinkedIn profile views within ATL roles by 2%
2	Increase positive sentiment around the Impact brand by 3%

 KPIs

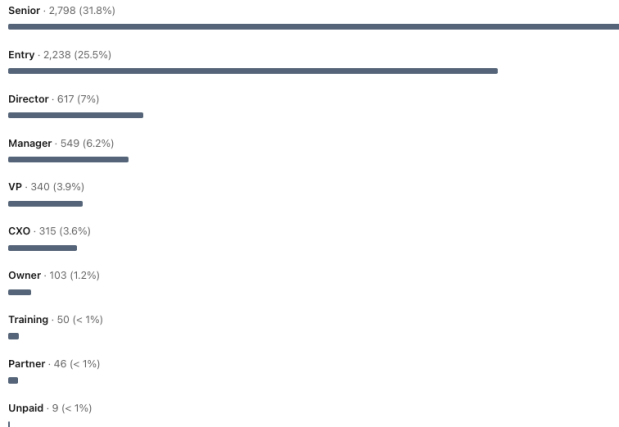

- Profile views
 - LinkedIn native measurement tool

 Call to Action

What's your biggest lesson from 2025?

See how we turned feedback into fuel.

Share this with someone who needs a reminder that growth isn't linear.

 Challenge

Transformation fatigue: ATLs are constantly overwhelmed by constant change

Strategic misalignment: Departments struggle to connect day-to-day work to long-term goals

Lack of transparency: clients and employees want to see the real story behind growth

Brand perception: Impact is still seen as a print company in some markets

This campaign reframes transformation as human, iterative process... making it relatable and inspiring
